Why pursue a Master of Divinity with ELGS & Kairos?

By inviting Kairos to walk on this journey with you, you're seizing a unique opportunity to deepen your Lutheran faith while simultaneously developing the content, character, and craft to flourish in your vocation. You'll develop a mentor team that walks with you throughout the entire program. And then, we will invite you to integrate discipleship, vocational excellence, and mastery learning.

Program Outcomes

With a focus on formation, biblical study, vocational discernment, theological reflection, and integrated practice, the Master of Divinity helps you connect your journey of discipleship with what God is doing in the world. Through the program, you will develop and demonstrate proficiency in integrated outcomes listed to the right.

Contextual Learning

Throughout the program, you have the opportunity to work with your mentor team to design learning experiences that are entirely shaped by what you are doing (or will do) in your current or desired vocational context. If an experience or project is connected to what it means to flourish in your vocation, then use it to make progress in your program!
